DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES UNLAWFUL: Pursuant to Section 17.46(b)(27) of the Texas Government Code, it is unlawful to take advantage of a disaster declared by the governor under Chapter 418 of the Texas Government Code by selling or leasing at, or making a demand for, an exorbitant or excessive price for fuel, food, medicine or another necessity.

TAX EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE: Under Texas Tax Code, Section 151.309(4), purchases made for the exclusive use of the State of Texas are exempt from the State and City Sales tax and Federal Excise tax.

RIGHT TO AUDIT: Pursuant to Section 2262.154 of the Texas Government Code, the State Auditor's Office, or successor agency, may conduct an audit or investigation of a contractor or any other entity or person receiving funds from the state directly under this Purchase Order or indirectly through a subcontract under this Purchase Order. The acceptance of funds hereunder acts as acceptance of the authority of the State Auditor's Office to conduct an audit or investigation in connection with those funds. Contractor must provide the State Auditor's Office with access to any information the State Auditor's Office considers relevant to the investigation or audit.

Purchaser may cancel any order in whole or in part, without liability if, (i) Products have not been shipped as of date of receipt of notice of cancellation, (ii) Product deliveries are not made at the time and in the quantities specified; (iii) Products infringe or are alleged to infringe any patent, trademark, copyright or trade secret right or (iv) Products fail to comply with any applicable law or regulation. To cancel, Purchaser shall give notice to the Vendor in writing, and to the extent specified therein, Vendor shall immediately terminate deliveries under the order.

GOVERNING LAW AND VENUE: This Purchase Order shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to the conflicts of law provisions. The venue of any suit arising under this Purchase Order is fixed in any court of competent jurisdiction of Travis County, Texas.
